To whom it may concern:

I represent _____ Vaulting Club which is a current member of the American Vaulting Association DBA Equestrian Vaulting USA. We would like to be a non-profit subordinate of the American Vaulting Association and included in the AVA's group exemption for the _____ fiscal year. Included with this application is a Participation Agreement for EVUSA Subordinates dated _____ that we have executed.

As a non-profit subordinate affiliate of the AVA we affirm:

- our Federal EIN number is _____, and
- we are not a private foundation within the meaning of IRC 509(a) or organized and operated in a foreign country, and
- our operations are consistent with the general mission and operation of the AVA to expand the recognition and accessibility of equestrian vaulting throughout the United States, and
- as a subordinate affiliate, our activities support development and promotion of equestrian vaulting through demonstrations, participation and information at horse shows, trade shows, vaulting competitions or conferences.

We further acknowledge we are solely responsible for:

- filing state and federal tax returns, as well as any other tax, organizational or informational return our jurisdiction requires, and
- maintaining state/local non-profit status as required as well as all documents and records for _____ Vaulting Club.

By my signature, below, I affirm that the above information is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief; and further, as legal representative, I specifically authorize the American Vaulting Association to include the _____ Vaulting Club in the group exemption letter.

Sincerely,
